Senator's Daughter and
B. V. Buonanno Jr.
Are Married

WEST HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 12 — Miss Martha Ann Dodd, daughter of United States Senator and Mrs. Thomas J. Dodd of North Stonington, Conn., and Washington, was married here this morning to Bernard Vincent Buonanno Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Buonanno of Providence and Narragansett, R. I.

The ceremony was performed in St. Thomas the Apostle Roman Catholic Church by the pastor, Msgr. Raymond LaFontaine. There was a reception at the Hartford Club.

Senator Dodd escorted his daughter, who wore white peau de soie and a mantilla of alençon lace. She carried a prayer book with white camellias and white elf roses.

Miss Carolyn Dodd was her sister's maid of honor. The other attendants were Mrs. Ronald Del Desto, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. John Richard Hoyer and the Misses Denise Farley, a cousin of the bride; Mary Hamill, Patricia Murphy, Patricia Glennon, Rhea Picotte and Marie José de Pont. Vincent Buonanno was best man for his brother.

Mrs. Buonanno was graduated from Mount St. Joseph Academy here and Trinity College in Washington. Her husband was graduated from Moses Brown School in Providence, Deerfield (Mass.) Academy and Brown University. He received his law degree in June from the Georgetown University Law Center.
